

SWOSU Plans New Student Orientation Session on June 10

06.03.2013

Nearly 190 incoming freshmen and 210 parents/family members have signed up to attend Southwestern Oklahoma State University's next New Student Orientation session coming up this Monday, June 10, on the Weatherford campus.

Students will arrive at the Fine Arts Center starting at 9 a.m. for a general session. The students will also be shown how to best build their schedules. The students will receive advisement and enroll for the fall semester. An open house starts at 11 a.m. in the Memorial Student Center, where students can get IDs, parking permits, information about Camp Duke and other information. Schedules will be ready for pick up at 1 p.m.

Parents/family members will attend a session in the Memorial Student Center Ballroom that also begins at 9 a.m.

New Student Orientation also has sessions planned for July 15 and August 16. For more information, please contact the NSO office at 580.774.3233.
