

High School Counselors Win $1,000 Scholarships for Seniors

09.21.2017

Two high school counselors each won a $1,000 scholarship for a high school senior who chooses to attend Southwestern Oklahoma State University. Karen McCullough (second from left) of Fort Cobb-Broxton High School and Lea Meason (third from left) of Apache High School won the scholarships at a recent SWOSU high school counselor program and luncheon on the Weatherford campus. Making the presentations were (far left) SWOSU Director of Enrollment Management Todd Boyd and (far right) SWOSU Assistant Director of Enrollment Management Taler Alexander and SWOSU Recruiter Brennan King.
