

SWOSU Wins 12 Awards at State PR Conference

07.29.2008

Southwestern Oklahoma State University won 12 awards at a state-wide competition at the recent Oklahoma College Public Relations Association state conference.

The competition was among all Oklahoma colleges and universities and featured over 400 entries in 30 categories of competition. SWOSU won the second most awards of all Oklahoma colleges and universities, trailing only Oklahoma State University at Stillwater. USAO won 10 awards followed by Northeastern State University, OU and Tulsa Community College, each winning seven awards.

SWOSU Graphic Designer/Photographer Kyle Wright won a total of seven awards, including a competition-best three first-place awards.
