SWOSU-Sayre recently showed its appreciation for area high school administrators and their students at the second annual Celebrating YOU! event for high school officials.

The event featured information sessions, discussion with SWOSU students, lunch and scholarship giveaways.

Elk City High School Counselor Lauren Shelton and Reydon High School Principal Kristi Scrivner each won a $2,000 SWOSU-Sayre scholarship to be awarded to one student at each school.

Superintendents, principals and counselors from 11 area high schools attended the event to learn more about SWOSU, the Sayre campus, and what their students need to know about concurrent enrollment as well as SWOSU enrollment after graduation.

During lunch, SWOSU Esports program coordinator Hayden Harrington spoke about the massive growth of Esports and gave suggestions for high school Esports programs.

Attendees came from Arapaho-Butler, Burns Flat-Dill City, Canute, Cheyenne, Clinton, Cordell, Elk City, Erick, Merritt, Reydon and Sayre schools.
