High School Counselors Win $1,000 Scholarships for Students

Two high school counselors each won a $1,000 scholarship for a high school senior who chooses to attend Southwestern Oklahoma State University. Deborah Miller (second from left) of Sentinel High School and Amber Wilson (third from left) of Cyril High School won the scholarships at a recent SWOSU high school counselor program and luncheon on the Weatherford campus. Making the presentations were (far left) SWOSU Recruiter Seth Odam and (far right) Director of Enrollment Management Todd Boyd.
