

Name the New Coffee House Contest at SWOSU

08.29.2006

Students are invited to name the new Starbucks coffee house that will soon open on the campus of Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford.

An original name is being sought, and the person who submits the best idea wins a gift card for three drinks per week at the coffee house for the entire semester.

The Collegiate Activities Board is sponsoring the contest. Shameika Williams said the winner will be announced on September 8.

The coffee house will be located in the Student Union on the SWOSU campus.
