

Senator Lankford Talks Healthcare Issues with SWOSU Students

09.28.2017

United States Senator James Lankford recently spent an hour via the internet from his Washington, D.C. office with Southwestern Oklahoma State University students in the US Healthcare Systems class, taught by Sharon Lawrence, on the Weatherford campus. The Oklahoma senator discussed healthcare issues with the SWOSU students and held a question/answer session.