

AAUW Plans First Meeting on August 21

08.11.2010

Weatherford's chapter of the American Association of University Women will have its first meeting of the 2010-11 year on Saturday, August 21, from 10 a.m. until 12 noon at the Southwestern Oklahoma State University Conference Center.

AAUW membership is open to all individuals who have completed a college/university degree (associate, bachelor's, master's or doctorate). Current college students are eligible for student affiliate membership. The AAUW Weatherford Branch meets once a month, September through April, to conduct educational, community service and social activities.

The August AAUW meeting will include a brief program, food and fellowship. Faye Henson, AAUW/OK state co-president, will give an update on AAUW current events and will share information from the AAUW National Convention. Plans and ideas will also be shared for upcoming programs.

A light brunch will be provided by meeting hostesses: Lisa Appeddu, Debbie Brown, Laura Endicott, Patsy Parker and Cindy Foust.

For more information about AAUW, call Appeddu, membership chair, at 774-3148 or Brown, AAUW president, at 774-3063.
