

February 2019

A Rodeo Queen

Josh Allen

Follow this and additional works at: https://dc.swosu.edu/sayre_student_anthology

Recommended Citation

Allen, Josh (2019) "A Rodeo Queen," SWOSU Sayre Student Anthology. Vol. 1: Iss. 5, Article 2.
Available at: https://dc.swosu.edu/sayre_student_anthology/vol1/iss5/2

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Monographs at SWOSU Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in SWOSU Sayre Student Anthology by an authorized editor of SWOSU Digital Commons. An ADA compliant document is available upon request. For more information, please contact phillip.fitzsimmons@swosu.edu.

(Continued from page 19)

agers and adults misspell words because they are used to spelling words in text messaging that are abbreviated or shortened. People become uneducated each and every day.

A cell phone can be an advantage or a disadvantage to someone. It can be a distraction or a learning tool. Cell phones influence people in different ways. There are some people who will not pick up that phone when they are driving or let their cell phone control their lives and make them neglect their family and other relationships. Some people even text like they are writing an English paper wanting an excellent grade. The influence of a cell phone and how it affects a person depends on that person's needs, wants, and morals.

A Rodeo Queen

Photograph
By Josh Allen