

Model UN Program at SWOSU Accepting Applications

08.21.2008

Southwestern Oklahoma State University's Model United Nations program is now taking applications for the Model UN class that starts in September and ends in February on the Weatherford campus.

Ambassador Kenneth Tillett, who heads up the SWOSU program, said the class will begin September 16 at 7 p.m. College credit for the course will be awarded during the 2009 spring semester.

Application forms are available in Room 101 C of the Old Science Building. For more information, call Tillett at 580.774.7134.
