

High School Counselors Win $1,000 SWOSU Scholarships for Seniors

10.09.2017

Two high school counselors each won a $1,000 scholarship for a high school senior who chooses to attend Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford. Matthew Parham (second from left) of Norman North High School and Linda Hood (third from left) of Edmond Santa Fe High School won the scholarships at a recent SWOSU high school counselor program and luncheon in Oklahoma City. Making the presentations were (far left) SWOSU Assistant Director of Enrollment Management Taler Alexander and (far right) SWOSU Director of Enrollment Management Todd Boyd.
