OKC Area High School Counselors Win $1,000 Scholarships for Students

Two high school counselors each won a $1,000 scholarship for a high school senior who chooses to attend Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford at a recent SWOSU counselor program held in Oklahoma City. Ericka VanCleave (second from left) of Mustang High School and Kimberly Ross (third from left) of Capitol Hill High School won the scholarships provided by the SWOSU Foundation, Inc. Making the presentations were (far left) SWOSU Assistant Director of Enrollment Management Taler Alexander and (far right) SWOSU Director of Enrollment Management Todd Boyd.
