

SWOSU Students Finalize Dawg Days Activities

07.27.2007

A SWOSU Student Leadership Development Retreat, designed to finalize the student aspects of the upcoming Dawg Days celebration, was held recently in Weatherford.

Dawg Days are planned August 18 through September 22 on the SWOSU campus. Natalie Jordan, social action director for the SWOSU Collegiate Activities Board, said the activities start during move-in day and continue through Parents' Weekend.

A list of the activities is available on the SWOSU web page at www.swosu.edu.

The Retreat was led by members representing the Student Government Association, CAB, Greek Council, Pom Squad, the PRIDE of SWOSU Marching Band, and the Dawg Days Committee.
