

Rotary Club Wins SWOSU Blood Drive Trophy

08.17.2011

Oklahoma Blood Institute Western Oklahoma Director Rick Story (left) presents Weatherford Rotary Club President Cindy Foust with a "Victory Dawg" trophy for the club's win in a recent blood drive held on the Southwestern Oklahoma State University campus. The Rotary Club and Kiwanis Club staged a friendly battle in a blood drive that raised over 100 pints of blood. The event is one of six blood drives held each year at SWOSU. The drives are organized and sponsored by the Collegiate Activities Board through the OBI. Looking on is CAB mentor Zac Gulick of Enid.
