

SSPO Attends Dinner Theatre

06.20.2012

Connie Teel (right), executive assistant to SWOSU President Randy Beutler, interacts with Francis Foriese in the Whodunit comedy murder mystery event in Oklahoma City. Also pictured are (from left) Jackie Nutry and Jodi Linder. The trip was sponsored by the SWOSU Support Personnel Organization.

Nineteen members of the Southwestern Oklahoma State University Support Personnel Organization (SSPO) recently attended a comedy murder mystery/dinner event in Oklahoma City.

The SSPO members, along with their guests of family and friends, attended the Whodunit Dining Room, a comedy murder mystery at Cattleman's Steak House. The production involved the audience and at the end of the evening, guests were given the opportunity to act as judges and vote on who "dun it."

SSPO is an organization for all support staff and employees who are not faculty or administrators on the SWOSU campus. SSPO plans various events throughout the year.

Those attending were: Kay Abramson, Connie Blakeman, Shannon Brinkley, Bonnie Drake, Janet Grabeal, Erin Hawkins, Whitney Lee, Jodi Linder, Kathy Megli, Iona Miller, Mike Miller, Charlotte Nutry, Heather Price, Tod Price, Glenda Printz, Barbara Roddam, Jessica Smith, Janice Sperle and Connie Teel.