

Majors Fair Coming Wednesday to SWOSU

09.24.2015

Southwestern Oklahoma State University offers a wide variety of academic opportunities for students, and SWOSU Career Services wants to help students find their right individual course of action.

A Majors Fair showcasing all of the different academic departments at SWOSU will be held this Wednesday, September 30, from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m. in the Memorial Student Center lobby.

Savannah Schones said crucial academic information such as degree plans, advisement, and other factors relating to academic success will be shared with students at the event. For more information, contact Schones in the Career Services office at 580.774.3233.
