

Manney Hired as New SWOSU Recruiter

09.19.2006

Rebecca Manney is a new recruiter for the Southwestern Oklahoma State University Admissions & Recruitment Office on the Weatherford campus.

Todd Boyd, director of the office, said Manney fills a new position.

Manney is a 2005 graduate of SWOSU, where she graduated Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Arts degree in speech communication. She is currently working on a Master of Education in parks and recreation management. Manney previously worked as an administrative assistant in the Dean of Students office.

Manney, a Weatherford native and daughter of Warren and Carla Goldmann, has also served as marketing coordinator for Southwestern Memorial Hospital.

She enjoys being a volunteer and works with Special Olympics, blood drives, Miss Southwestern Pageant Board and Pine Acres Church.
