

Oklahoma Art Education Association Holding Fall Conference at SWOSU

09.21.2006

The Oklahoma Art Education Association fall conference is being held September 22-23 at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford.

Clinton's Amy Fiegener, vice president of the OAEA West Division, said approximately 130 art educators from around the state are expected to participate in the conference, which is being held in the Stafford Center and Wellness Center on the SWOSU campus.

Workshops are planned for Friday and Saturday afternoons. The keynote speaker is artist Mike Wimmer, a Muskogee native. Wimmer will talk at 10 a.m. on Saturday morning in Room 145 of the Stafford Center.

Additional information about the conference is available by calling Fiegener at 580.323-7828.
