Southwestern Oklahoma State University's Homecoming is Saturday, October 10, and finalists for Homecoming king and queen have been selected by SWOSU students.

Queen candidate finalists are Alexandra Jordan, Blanchard; Kaydee Lindley, Hinton; and Madison Murphy, Grove.

King candidate finalists are Karch Bullard, Edmond (Christian Heritage Academy); Garrett Chambless, Duke; and Jim Enoh, Dallas, Texas.

The finalists were selected by an online student vote that had 1,044 students participate. The finalists interviewed with a panel of students, faculty and administrators as the final determination for homecoming queen and king. The winners will be announced at halftime of the football game that kicks off at 5 p.m. at Milam Stadium on the SWOSU campus.

Jordan is majoring in biology and was nominated by the Medical Professions Club; Lindley is majoring in healthcare administration and was nominated by New Student Orientation; and Murphy is majoring in pharmacy and was nominated by Residence Life.

Bullard's major is parks and wildlife law enforcement and he was nominated by the Baptist Collegiate Ministries; Chambless is majoring in interdisciplinary studies and was nominated by Residence Life; and Enoh is a nursing major and was nominated by the Nurses Christian Fellowship.
