

Grant Received for New Fishing and Boat Dock at Crowder Lake

07.17.2012

Southwestern Oklahoma State University and Dr. Chad Kinder, associate dean of the SWOSU School of Behavioral Sciences and Education, were recently awarded a $34,705 grant from the Oklahoma Department of Wildlife Conservation to provide a new boat and fishing dock for additional boating access at Crowder Lake. The dock, which was a joint project with Washita County, is now open and available to the public for use. Meeting recently at Crowder Lake with Kinder (second from left) were (from left): Crowder Lake Park Director Paul Hummel; SWOSU President Randy Beutler; SWOSU College of Professional and Graduate Studies Dean Dr. Ken Rose; SWOSU Provost Dr. Blake Sonobe; and Oklahoma State Representative Harold Wright of Weatherford.
