

SWOSU Marching Band Plans Pre-Game Concerts Starting Saturday

09.07.2011

When area residents attend this Saturday's Parent's Day activities at Southwestern Oklahoma State University, they are encouraged to stop by the SWOSU Clock Tower area on the Weatherford campus around 5:10 p.m.

The SWOSU Pride of the Great Southwest marching band and SWOSU spirit squads will perform a pre-game concert before the 6 p.m. football contest.

SWOSU marching band director Marc Mueller said the band plans to do the pre-game concert at each home football game approximately 50 minutes before kickoff.

Everyone is invited and encouraged to attend.
