

SWOSU Groups Heading to Oklahoma State Fair

09.09.2014

The Residence Life & Housing Office is taking 100 of its residents to the Oklahoma State Fair this Friday, September 12, in Oklahoma City.

Chad Martin, director of the office, said the first 100 to sign up will get to attend free of charge, which includes transportation, gate ticket and an unlimited rides wristband.

Charter buses will provide transportation to and from the fair. The buses will leave from Oklahoma Hall at 2 p.m. and return that evening around midnight. Residents are able to sign up at ResLife, and a $10 deposit is required (this money will be returned on the bus ride to the fair.)

SWOSU also has its annual booth at the Oklahoma State Fair. The university display is located in the Cox Pavilion Center (Booth 6410). All SWOSU alumni, students and friends are invited to stop by the booth, which is operated by volunteer faculty, administrators, staff and students.
