

Three SWOSU Students Appointed to Student Government Exec Positions

09.20.2007

Southwestern Oklahoma State University Student Body President Greg Franklin of Midwest City (Carl Albert) has appointed three SWOSU students to executive positions in student government on the Weatherford campus.

Dana Mason of Oklahoma City (Putnam City North) was named academic affairs secretary, Garret King of Binger was appointed chief information officer, and Ryan McAdory of Oklahoma City (Northeast) was named associate justice of the Supreme Court of the student body.

Mason, a former Speaker of the Senate, will be in charge of SWOSU's chapter in the Oklahoma Student Government Association and Oklahoma Intercollegiate Legislature.

King, former student body president, is commissioned with the task of writing a policy protocol procedures manual for SGA to aid in the changing of future administrations.

McAdory—who is a resident advisor at Neff Hall, football player and public relations secretary for the Criminal Justice Student Association—will serve in the associate justice position.

SGA Public Relations Secretary Tyler Rogers said all three appointments were made with unanimous consent from the Senate.
