Giving Tree Planned on the SWOSU Campus

Southwestern Oklahoma State University Orientation Leaders are hosting a “Giving Tree” this holiday season on the Weatherford campus.

The tree will be open to any SWOSU student, faculty or staff that has a need.

Taler Alexander, coordinator of the New Student Orientation program, said the OLS will collect names and information of those wishing to receive gifts until Tuesday, November 20. People can sign up or be nominated by contacting Alexander or Heather Hummel in the NSO & Career Services via email, phone (580.774.3233), or stopping by Stafford 209. Email addresses are taler.alexander@swosu.edu and heather.hummel@swosu.edu.

Names of those receiving gifts will remain confidential.

Gift tags will be available to pick up from November 26–December 7 in Stafford 209 for people that would like to purchase gifts. Gifts will need to be returned to the NSO and Career Services Office by Monday, December 10.
