

SWOSU Students Celebrate Constitution Days

09.20.2011

Afton Mages, Minco (left) and Shelby Sparkman, Quanah TX, are among the SWOSU students who have been celebrating "Constitution Days" on the Weatherford campus. A display was set up in the Stafford Center lobby as part of a nationwide United States government issues and governance education campaign. Students and residents were encouraged to sign a giant Constitution and register to vote. Pocket Constitutions were also handed out.
