

Youth Activity Camp Planned at SWOSU

09.27.2007

A youth activity camp is planned for Saturday, October 13, on the Southwestern Oklahoma State University campus in Weatherford.

Social/service sorority Zeta Phi is planning the Zeta Bulldog Camp for ages 4-12. Two sessions are planned, one from 8 a.m. until 12 noon and the other from 1-5 p.m. at the Wellness Center on the SWOSU campus.

Kayla Nieman, vice president of Zeta Phi, said there will be tons of games, arts and crafts, a lesson in stranger danger, and other fun educational activities. Helping with the entertainment will be SWOSU student-athletes, local firemen and police officers, and Zeta Phi members.

Cost is $30 for one session or $50 for both. Only 50 spots will be available for each session.

"We are asking that you pre-register and pre-pay, so we can get a head count and purchase supplies for all the activities, goodies, and t-shirts," Nieman said.

A liability release form will also need to be signed. Registrations can be made by emailing niemank@student.swosu.edu or calling (405) 740-5952.
