

SWOSU Student Wins Award at National Collegiate Honor Council Conference

11.16.2017

Southwestern Oklahoma State University student Alina Shrestha (middle) of Nepal won third place in poster presentation for health sciences at the recent National Collegiate Honor Council (NCHC) conference held in Atlanta (GA). This was the first year that SWOSU students have competed in the national conference. Making the presentation were (left) NCHC President Art Spisak and NCHC Board of Directors and Poster Judge Michael Sloane.