

AAUW Hosting Affordable Health Care Act Presentation at SWOSU this Tuesday

09.19.2013

Curious about the Affordable Care Act and how it will affect everyone in 2014?

Regional University System of Oklahoma Benefits Coordinator Beth Lott will talk about the ACA this Tuesday, September 24, at an open forum on the campus of Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford. The 7 p.m. session will be held at the SWOSU Conference Center. The public is invited, and admission is free.

Lott was asked to come to SWOSU by the Weatherford branch of the American Association of University Women (AAUW) in an effort to provide basic information on health care reform. Her presentation focuses on why individuals need insurance coverage and what sort of options are available. In addition, Lott will bring information for small business owners.

The SWOSU Conference Center is located at the corner of Seventh and Davis Streets in Weatherford.

AAUW membership is open to all individuals who have completed a college/university degree (associate, bachelor's, master's or doctorate). Current college students are eligible for a free student e-affiliate membership. The AAUW Weatherford branch meets once each month, September through April, to conduct educational, community service and social activities. The organization also hosts the SWOSU Tech Trek math & science camp for girls entering the 8th grade. For more information about this event or about AAUW, contact Darla Davenport at 580.774.3071 or at the following website: <http://weatherford-ok.aauw.net/>.