

SWOSU Res Life Taking Full Load to State Fair

09.19.2013

Southwestern Oklahoma State University's Residence Life is taking 100 residents to the Oklahoma State Fair this Saturday, September 21.

Transportation will be provided as residents leave in two charter buses at 2 p.m. and return to campus at midnight. On arrival to the fair, residents will be provided with front gate admission and an unlimited ride wristband with no charge, according to Residence Life Director Chad Martin.

The Oklahoma State Fair is a culturally diverse experience, featuring various attractions from Plains Indians Dancers and the rock trio America to Bacon Wrapped Caramel Apples and Deep-Fried Watermelon. SWOSU also has a booth in the Cox Pavilion. This is the 107th year for the State Fair.

All spots are currently full and there is a waiting list for last-minute cancellations. For more information, contact Martin at 580.774.3024 or chad.martin@swosu.edu.
