

Medieval Arts & Crafts Event Planned Saturday at SWOSU

11.09.2015

Medieval Arts & Crafts demonstrations and workshops are planned this Saturday, November 14, on the Southwestern Oklahoma State University campus in Weatherford.

The free event will be held in the Art Building from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m.

Audrey Little, president of the SWOSU Art Club, said demonstrations will include Chivalric Combat; Metal, Wood & Leather Work; Medieval Games; Wool & Cotton Spinning; and Renaissance Court Dancing.

Free workshops are planned in the following areas but registration is encouraged since the workshops are limited to a certain number of participants. The workshops will include calligraphy, illumination, card weaving and nalbinding. Register by calling 580.774.3756.

The free event is made possible by the SWOSU Department of Art, Communications & Theatre and student activity fees.
