

October Employee Spotlight at SWOSU

10.08.2007

Zack Saunders

Cris Hawkins

Cris Hawkins and Zack Saunders are the employees in the spotlight for the month of October at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford.

Hawkins is a custodian at the Memorial Student Center. He has worked at SWOSU for two years. Hawkins is a long-time resident of Weatherford and is the son of Jerry and Mary Hawkins. He attends the First Baptist Church in Weatherford and enjoys collecting Coca-Cola items, going to garage sales, camping and hiking.

Saunders is the hall director for Rogers and Jefferson. He has worked at SWOSU for over two years. He and his wife, Elissa, live in Weatherford and attend Servant's Heart Church. He came to Weatherford to fill the position of hall director and to assist in coaching the SWOSU baseball team. He enjoys hunting and playing golf.

The employee spotlight program is sponsored by the SWOSU Support Personnel Organization.