

AAUW Seeking Nominations for Scholarship Award

10.07.2014

The Weatherford Chapter of the American Association of University Women is soliciting nominations for a scholarship that is awarded to an undergraduate woman who will graduate in 2015.

Each applicant will be considered based on certain criteria including being a current student at SWOSU who has completed at least 30 hours of course work; will graduate in the spring, summer, or fall of 2015 with either an associate or bachelor degree; has a 3.00 or better overall grade point average; has participated in extracurricular activities and has shown evidence of leadership qualities.

The completed scholarship application form and all references must be submitted by October 31 at 12 noon. The application forms and criteria can be downloaded from the AAUW website, <http://weatherford-ok.aauw.net/scholarship/>

The AAUW Scholarship Committee will select a recipient, and the student will be notified on or around November 22. The scholarship recipient will be recognized at the December 2 evening meeting of the Weatherford AAUW branch and at the branch's annual luncheon, held in early March 2015 on the SWOSU campus.
