

SWOSU's Campbell Receives Service Award from LOSKAMP

10.09.2009

Making the presentation was Kay Porter, program manager in Oklahoma. Campbell is a professor in the SWOSU Department of Chemistry & Physics.

Southwestern Oklahoma State University Professor Dr. Brian Campbell of Weatherford was recently presented a service award at the 15th annual Louis Stokes-Oklahoma Alliance for Minority Participation Research Symposium held in Stillwater. Campbell has headed the SWOSU program for 11 years and will be stepping down from that position at the end of the school year. Dr. Tim Hubin will now lead SWOSU's participation in the LS-OKAMP program, which encourages minority students to participate in science research activities and graduate school.
