

KE Selling T-Shirts to Raise Money for Cancer Awareness

10.15.2007

Among the members selling t-shirts are (front from left): Holly Bullington, KE President; Kim Le and Megan McCarthey. In Back is LeAnn Parent.

Kappa Epsilon members at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford are trying their best to help spread awareness and help raise funds for cancer research by selling t-shirts during the month of October as part of Breast Cancer Awareness month activities. The KE project is part of the fraternity's national project. T-shirts are available for $10 by calling (405) 414-6880, emailing lek2@student.swosu.edu or stopping by Room 214 of the Stafford Center. KE is also looking for corporate sponsors, so more money from t-shirt sales can go to the Breast Cancer Foundation.
