

SWOSU Homecoming King and Queen Finalists Announced

10.07.2011

Finalists for Southwestern Oklahoma State University Homecoming king and queen have been announced by the Student Government Association.

The three queen finalists selected by student voting are Ashton Hix, Tahlequah, sponsored by the Baptist Collegiate Ministry; Eryn Pennello, Lawton (Eisenhower), sponsored by Oklahoma Hall; and Allyson Walton, Fairview, sponsored by Residence Life.

King candidate finalists include Rob Bennett, Stillwater, sponsored by the Baptist Collegiate Ministry; Andrew Johnson, Rowlett (TX), sponsored by the Black Student Association; and Daniel Soto, Lawton (High), sponsored by Kappa Kappa Psi.

The finalists will go through a series of interviews with a panel comprised of SWOSU faculty, administration and staff. The king and queen are selected through a point system that takes into account their interviews and also the student vote.

The Homecoming king and queen will be crowned during pre-game activities of the SWOSU football game on Saturday, October 15, at 6 p.m. in Weatherford.
