

SWOSU Marching Band & Spirit Squads Plan Pre-Game Concerts Starting Saturday

09.12.2012

Southwestern Oklahoma State University's marching band will once again provide pre-game concerts during football game days on the Weatherford campus.

The concerts were such a success last year that SWOSU Director of Bands Marc Mueller wanted to continue the series this year. When area residents attend this Saturday's Parent's Day activities, they are encouraged to stop by the SWOSU Clock Tower area on the Weatherford campus at 5:15 p.m.

The SWOSU Pride of the Great Southwest marching band and SWOSU pom and cheer squads will perform each home game approximately 45 minutes before kickoff.

Everyone is invited and encouraged to attend.
