

SWOSU Single Parent's Network Hosting Elevate Through Education in Elk City

12.01.2016

Southwestern Oklahoma State University and the SWOSU Single Parent's Network (SPN) is hosting an "Elevate Through Education" night for single residents in the Elk City area.

The SPN is sponsoring the event that is designed to help singles start or continue their educational careers. It runs from 5:30-7 p.m. on Tuesday, December 6, at the Elk City Housing Authority Office.

There will be financial aid, enrollment and career services representatives in attendance to help answer questions. Dinner and beverages will be provided and children are welcome.
