

MODA Awards Grant for SWOSU Museum

10.07.2013

Southwestern Oklahoma State University Foundation has received a $10,603 grant from the Midwestern Oklahoma Development Authority to assist on the development of the SWOSU Museum in downtown Weatherford.

Jennifer Dickey of the Foundation office said work continues on the museum, which is located in the same building that houses the Weatherford Area Chamber of Commerce office.

The museum will display artworks and artifacts reflecting the history and growth of SWOSU.
