

Asian American Student Association's BánhMì Bonanza is Thursday

10.09.2013

The final day of the Asian American Student Association's BánhMì Bonanza fundraiser at Southwestern Oklahoma State University will be Thursday, October 10, from 11 a.m.-1 p.m. in the Memorial Student Center lobby.

The AASA is selling sandwiches to raise money for the association's projects.

BánhMì is a Vietnamese sandwich with a fusion of Asian and Euro styles. It is usually on a French baguette with a variety of meats/tofu and vegetables.

"This is new and exciting for us as it is our first year putting on the BánhMì Bonanza," said AASA Vice President Tin Luong. "We would love for people to come out and enjoy some Vietnamese sandwiches."
