

Five Students Represent SWOSU at PBL National Conference

12.08.2016

Five Southwestern Oklahoma State University students from the Everett Dobson School of Business and Technology in Weatherford recently attended the Phi Beta Lambda National Fall Leadership Conference (NFLC) in Dallas (TX).

Along with their faculty advisor, Jonna Myers, the students attended sessions on leadership development and global business initiatives. Approximately 2,000 students from schools across the country were in attendance.

SWOSU representatives were: Bailey Deutschendorf, Fairview; Emmaly Helt, Kingfisher; Ryan Schmid, Windsor (CA); Sam Wollmann, Weatherford; and Maegan Yost, Kingfisher.

Students interested in joining SWOSU's chapter of Phi Beta Lambda, contact Jonna Myers at jonna.myers@swosu.edu.