

Jeong Wins Outstanding Honorable Mention Award at China Art Show

11.08.2006

Southwestern Oklahoma State University Art Professor E.K. Jeong recently returned from her trip to China where her artwork won the outstanding honorable mention award at the "From Lausanne to Beijing" 4th International Fiber Art Exhibition and Symposium.

Professor Jeong was among 236 world wide well-known artists invited to exhibit their art works. According to SWOSU Art Department Chair Joe London, the exhibition is important to the history of art and has provided opportunities to numerous artist and educators who are interested in the fiber art media.

Jeong expresses thanks to SWOSU and the area communities for their encouragement and interests in art at home and abroad.
