

Weatherford AAUW to Host Oklahoma Women's Coalition Executive Director

12.21.2015

Danielle Ezell, executive director of the Oklahoma Women's Coalition, will be speaking in Weatherford on Friday, January 22, and her talk is open to the public.

The Weatherford branch of the American Association of University Women is hosting Ezell at a 12 noon luncheon in the Bonny Board Room in the Memorial Student Center on the Southwestern Oklahoma State University campus.

Ezell will discuss the 100 Women discussion/debate that was held nationwide on December 1. In addition, Ezell will give an update regarding OWC and the upcoming legislative session priorities and any programming emphasis during the coming months.

Lunch will be provided consisting of three types of pizza (including a veggie option), tea & water, and cookies/brownies.

For additional information, contact AAUW President Lori Gwyn at lori.gwyn@swosu.edu or call 580.774.3744.