

Students Win Scholarships at SWOSU Saturday

11.09.2006

These high school seniors each won $250 scholarships at the recent SWOSU Saturday preview event held at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford. Nearly 450 students and parents/friends attended the event that allowed the visitors to tour the campus and visit with various academic representatives.

The scholarships, which were awarded in a drawing, were provided by the SWOSU Foundation. Winners were (from left): Emily Wilmoth, Westmoore; Jason Wallace, Fairview; Anjali Gandhi, Clinton; and Anthony Allison, Woodward. Pictured with the students is Todd Boyd, director of the SWOSU Admissions & Recruitment Office.