

SWOSU to Host Education Career & Technology Fair this Wednesday

10.31.2014

Southwestern Oklahoma State University will host an Education Career & Technology Fair this Wednesday, November 5, on the Weatherford campus.

SWOSU Career Services is hosting the fair from 8 a.m. until 12 noon in the Memorial Student Center Ballroom. Schools from two states will be in attendance, recruiting teacher candidates.

The technology portion will begin at 8 a.m. and mock interviews will be conducted between 8:30 and 11 a.m. The career fair portion will begin at 10 a.m. A networking lunch will be featured after the fair finishes at noon.

Jason Proctor, the 2015 Oklahoma Teacher of the Year, will be in attendance as well as 36 teacher candidates and others that have an education background or an interest in an education career.
