

SWOSU Care Packages Fixed for Children Around the World

11.19.2008

Southwestern Oklahoma State University's Collegiate Activities Board (CAB) recently partnered with the Baptist Collegiate Ministries (BCM) to create SWOSU care packages for children around the world. The CAB students individually donated gifts and money as their philanthropy project for December.
