

Oklahoma Hall Wins 2nd Cook-Off Challenge

10.02.2012

Oklahoma Hall won $500 for winning the latest SWOSU Residence Life Tailgate and Cook-off Challenge held prior to SWOSU's football game against Henderson State (AR).

Finishing in second place and winner of a $100 gift card was All-American Insurance.

Chad Martin, director of ResLife, said the next cook-off challenge is Saturday, October 13, when the Bulldog football team hosts Arkansas Tech University at 2 p.m. The sponsor is United Supermarket of Weatherford. Teams will need to feature a product using the brand name of Superior Selections, which can be found at United Supermarket.

Anyone is invited to enter the competition that takes place during home football games at SWOSU. The winner each week gets $500. Points are awarded each time and teams keep their top three scores. At the end of the season, the team with the most points wins an additional $1,000.

During the first competition, SWOSU fraternity Tau Kappa Epsilon won first place and Emmanuel Baptist Church won second.

A cooks meeting is held three hours prior to the cook off each home game so the October 13 meeting will be at 11 a.m. At least one team member must attend the meeting
