

150th Commemoration of the Sand Creek Massacre Symposium held at SWOSU

11.05.2014

Guest speakers at the recent 150th Commemoration of the Sand Creek Massacre Symposium held at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford were (from left): Oklahoma Historical Society Executive Director Dr. Bob Blackburn, Cheyenne-Arapaho Tribal College President Dr. Henrietta Mann, Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation Artist Chief Harvey Pratt, Historian Jerome Greene and SWOSU President Randy Beutler. The group is standing beside a photo of Mann's great-grandmother, who survived both the Sand Creek and Washita massacres.
