

Event to Raise Money for Model UN Program is Thursday

12.03.2008

A winter formal is coming up Thursday, December 4, at Southwestern Oklahoma State University.

The Model UN program is sponsoring the formal that is open to the public to raise money for the Model UN program on the Weatherford campus. Cost is $10 per person or $15 for a couple.

MariBel Ramirez said the winter formal will be held at 7 p.m. in the Memorial Student Center Ballroom. The formal will include music, dancing and food and will be a black and white affair. Organizers want SWOSU students and area residents to participate.

The Model UN program is raising money for a competition this spring in St. Louis.

For more information, contact Ken Tillett at 580.774.7134.