

Miss SWOSU to Speak at Walking for Wellness Program

12.03.2008

The next Walking for Wellness event is this Tuesday, December 9, at the Southwestern Oklahoma State University Wellness Center on the Weatherford campus.

Everyone is invited to the 7 p.m. program in Room 222. Admission is free, and there will be a prize drawing, according to WW volunteer Patti Harper.

Miss Southwestern 2009 Kaeli Carothers will be guest speaker. Carothers is a sophomore majoring in pharmacy. Her platform issue is "A Walk a Day Keeps the Doctor Away."

The brief program will be followed by a group indoor walk at the Wellness Center.