

SWOSU Employees Pitzer and Pope in the Spotlight

11.13.2007

Clay Pope

Dale Pitzer

Dale Pitzer and Clay Pope are the employees in the spotlight during the month of November at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford.

Pitzer is a custodian at Rogers Hall. He has worked at SWOSU for seven years. He lives in Hydro with his wife, Jennifer, and his daughter, Taylor. He attends the First Christian Church in Hydro. Pitzer enjoys working on old vehicles and spending time with friends and family.

Pope is the interactive video technician for the SWOSU Distance Learning Department. He has worked as the technician for two years. Pope previously worked at SWOSU as a student worker for five years. He lives in Weatherford. His parents, Roy and Pat Pope, and his sister, Tara, also reside in Weatherford. He attends the First Baptist Church and enjoys riding, reading, gaming, model ship building, bowling and choir.

The employee spotlight program is sponsored by the SWOSU Support Personnel Organization.